Under the Sea Family Discovery Day

SATURDAY 7 MAY 2016
12 - 4pm

British Museum
Great Russell Street
WC1B 3DG

Join us for a day of FREE and fabulous activities. Make, look, touch, sign, explore and laugh.

This event is fully accessible for families with deaf children and parents, but all families are welcome.

In our Under the Sea Family Discovery Day you can explore Museum galleries, take an underwater family selfie in our photo booth, make a piece of treasure to take home and enjoy stories of the sea.

All areas of the Museum are fully accessible for buggies and wheelchair users. Bring your own packed lunch to eat in the Family Lunch Room at the Museum.

Suitable for all age groups. Children must be accompanied by an adult at all times.
